Workers' Compensation Insurance

Wilkes University provides the [illegible] workers' compensation insurance program [illegible] at no cost to employees [illegible] course of employment [illegible] that requires [illegible] after a [illegible] waiting period if the employee is hospitalized [illegible] immediately [illegible]

The employee who sustains [illegible] injuries [illegible] may initially [illegible] care provider [illegible] but you may change from the designated [illegible] or health care [illegible] with a provider on the list to provide [illegible] or health care [illegible] trained physician [illegible]

You may seek treatment or consultation from a non-designated physician or health care provider during the 90 days, however, you will be responsible for the charges for this treatment during the 90 days [illegible] the payment of [illegible] Neither Wilkes University nor its insurance carrier will be liable [illegible] work [illegible] recreational, social, or athletic activities sponsored by [illegible] participation in any of [illegible] Wilkes University [illegible]